

Happiness

I asked the sunset sun: "What happiness is?"

I asked the rising moon: "What happiness is?"

I asked the sparkling stars: "What happiness is?"

I asked the still blue sea: "What happiness is?"

I asked the bloomy trees: "What happiness is?"

I asked the jolly kids: "What happiness is?"

I asked the flying birds: "What happiness is?"

I asked the pretty girls: "What happiness is?"

And everybody said: Oh, come on, go ahead!

To ask there is no need. That's very easy in deed!"

It's happiness to want to fly because you are glad!

It's happiness to feel a strong and healthy lad!

It's happiness to hope and be well disposed!

It's happiness to love and also to be loved!

It's happiness to sit on a river's bank and hear the singing birds, the leaves, the stream that flows so clear!

It's happiness to sing "Alleluia" to the Lord,

to admire His splendid world and don't find any odd!

It's happiness to be a singing optimist!

To look at everything like being a specialist!

And if you want to express your real happiness,

just turn your head around and SMILE with kindness!

Smile every time, everywhere, to everybody!

Smile every time, everywhere, to everybody!

Smile every time, everywhere, to everybody!

Smile every time, everywhere, to everybody!

Smile!

Sent by George Emm. Tselikas